Message from Your Regent

Father's Day will soon be here - a day of celebrating all those who get up every day in response to the Father's knocking. Being a father means facing many struggles and difficulties. It means going to work - even when you would prefer to stay in bed because you know that your family depends on you. It means constantly looking out for your family, making every effort to ensure that they are protected.

Thank God we have a Heavenly Father who does all this and helps the fathers here on earth do the same. He too must discipline and encourage. He too must protect and nurture. He too must make of his family a house of love.

Indeed, God gives fathers everything they need to raise their children well. He gives them hands that can create and can comfort. He gives them mouths to speak words of encouragement. He gives them eyes and ears to see and hear the good. God gives fathers all the tools they need, but fathers must still use those tools properly.

This is where the most important tool comes in - God gives all fathers a heart that mirrors his own so that everything a father does is rooted in love.

Sometimes fathers are someone other than your "bio-dad" - it can be an uncle, grandfather, godfather, or just a special man in your life who cares. Pray for them all on this Father's Day and if possible, thank them for being in your life and the lives of your children.

*Love, Peace, and Happiness,
Mary Jane Schuster*
